From the margins to centre stage: Migrant families challenging the effects of the No Recourse to Public Funding Policy $\text{Tuesday } 21^{\text{st}} \text{ February}$

Time	Session
9:45
	Registration and coffee Welcome
10:05am	welcome
	Dr. Hmut Frol. Open University
10:10am	Dr Umut Erel, Open University Keynotes: The legal and policy context for the No
10:10aiii	Recourse to Public Funding policy (NRPF)
	Recourse to rubiic ruliding policy (NRFF) Baroness Ruth Lister, Loughborough University Daroness Ruth dister, doughborough oniversity Colin Yeo, Garden Court Chambers domi ree, darden dourt dhambers
11:00am	Participatory Arts and Social Actions Research Project:
	How can creative research projects challenge policies such as the No Recourse to Public Funds
	Dr Umut Erel, Open University
	Erene Kaptani, Open University
	Professor Maggie O'Neill, University of York
	Professor Tracey Reynolds, Greenwich University
11:15am	BREAK
11:30am	Forum Theatre Scenes and interactive exchange and audience reflections on the effects of 'No Recourse to Public Funding' on migrant mothers
12:30	Small Group Discussions
	a) How can we campaign to change the NRPF policy?
	b) How can we support those affected by NRPF policy?
	c) How can the research methods demonstrated inform policy 1.00	and practice in relation to work with marginalized groups?
1:00pm	Lunch
1:45 pm	Report back from Small Group Discussions and Roundtable discussion
	Dr. Dobbio Woolrog Downard Joseph Downtree Foundation
	Dr Debbie Weekes-Bernard, Joseph Rowntree Foundation
	Gracie Bradley, Migrants Rights Network
	Bethan Lant, Praxis
	Chaired by: Dr Omar Khan, The Runnymede Trust
	Chan ed by. Di Omai Khan, the Kumiyinede Hust

From the margins to centre stage: Migrant families challenging the effects of the No Recourse to Public Funding Policy

Tuesday 21st February

ruesday 21st rebruary
	3:15	Closing Remarks
	pm	Dr Umut Erel, Open University
	P	Dr Omar Khan, The Runnymede Trust
	3:30p	Networking and close m

