Workshop programme

21st February

- 09.30-9.45: Sandip Pattanayak (Green Foundation) and Sandip Hazareesingh (Open University): Welcome and introduction to the workshop
- 09.50-10.10: Tsveti Bandakova and Sandip Hazareesingh (Open University): Documenting farming lives: the women’s oral history project
- 10.30-10.50: Vanaja Ramparsad (Green Foundation): Threatened diversity, growing challenges: Approach of Green Foundation
- 11.05-11.25: Tea break
- 11.25-11.45: Sara Jones (Bath Spa University): What is participatory media and how can documentary film be useful?
- 12.05-12.25: Sanjay Patil (BAIF Development Research Foundation): Community-led conservation of agro-biodiversity and wild food resources for food security and livelihood
- 12.45-13.45: Lunch
- 13.45-14.05: Tom Wakeford (Coventry University): Embodying the agrarian crisis: farmers in Telengana making history through participatory theatre
- 14.25-14.45: Bishwadeep Ghose (Arghyam Foundation): Water and culture of water
- 15.05-15.25: Jasber Singh (Coventry University): Growing food as a form of resistance in Adivasi territories
- 15.40-16.00: Tea Break
- 16.00-16.20: David Hogg (Chief Agricultural Advisor, Naandi Foundation): Bio-dynamic farming and its future
- 16.40-17.00: Mike Wilson (Loughborough University): Storytelling as a way to access lay knowledge and unheard voices
- 17.20-17.40: GNS Reddy (AkshayaKalpa Organic Farm): Indigenous knowledge of women and its fundamental importance in conservation practices

22nd February

- 09.30-11.45: Village visit: Janadhanya Women’s Federation and seed bank
12.45-13.45: Lunch

13.45-14.05: Bablu Ganguly (Timbaktu Collective): Ecorestoration

15.05-15.25: Pramel Gupta (Vrutti Livelihood Resource Centre): Community-based approaches in agriculture

15.40-16.00: Tea break

16.00-16.20: Narayanan Raghunathan and Sandip Pattanayak (Green Foundation): Closing remarks

19.00-22.00: Conference dinner